THE NEW CURRENCY .- The Printing Bureau this Department is now fairly at work printing the new ten and fifteen cent currency notes The machines cut the notes as fast as they are produced, each machine cutting 4,500 sheets ber day. On each sheet of ten cent notes there are twenty notes, and on each of the fifteen cent sheets there are fifteen notes. Four of these machines are now at work, each one of which will average, in cutting ten cent notes, 90,000 notes per day, or $9,000, the four machines furnishing the Treasurer, daily, with $25,000 in ten cent notes. In fifteen cent notes the same machines will cut $40.5 0. It is expected that the twenty-five cent notes will arrive next week, and, as they can then put to work two additional machines, the currency will be given to the public much faster.

missioner of Internal Revenue has decided that where wholesale liquor dealers empry original packages of spirits of a different man ufacture into a cistern for the purpose of equalizing the proof, they become rectifiers, not that the whisky is rectified or compounded by this process, but under act of April 16th, 186), every ompounder is made a rectifier. So there can only be rectifiers and wholesale dealers as the law now stands, and under section 17, act July 20th, 1868, a wholesale dealer can only change the packages where the distiller's name, serial numbers, &c., are preserved. The Commissioner was shown the impossibility of this thing in the case of a well-known firm in Louisville, where they empty spirits from the original packages into a cistern, equalizing the proofs and then draw off into other and larger ackages for shipment. In this case it was decided that the party neither rectified no mpounded his spirits, but under the laws as wholesale dealer he was compelled to preserve the serial numbers, &c., which could not be done, and it would require an act of Congress to relieve them from the operation of that

INTERNAL REVENUE DECISION. -The follow ing decision was made to-day by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue

Treasury Department, Office Internal Revenue, Washington, July 24, 1839 —Sir: In your communication of the 22d instant you submit washington of the 22d instant you success from unication of this office two questions : for the decision of this office two questions of an
First.—Whether under the 1stsection of an act to amend an act entitled 'An act imposing act to amend an act entitled spirits and tobacco and for act to smend an act entitled 'An act imposing taxes on distilled spirits and tobacco and for other purposes, approved, July 20th, 1:68,' a party carrying on a distillery on leasehold premises, the lease of which was executed on the distillery erected thereon prior to the passage of the act of July 20th, 1:86, and the fee of which is in minor children incapable of giving consent, as required by said act, can continue such distillery under the bonds required by said act, and under an extension of the required lease during the minority of said children."

children."

In reply I have to say that under section I of the act of April 10th, 1869, a party owning a distillery or distilling apparatus, erected prior to the 20th of July, 1888, situate on a tract of land held under a lease or other evidence of title less than fee simple, and of which lease he is the owner, may be permitted to operate such distillery, whether such leasehold estate was created prior to July 20, 1869, or not, if the fee simple to such lot or tract of land is vested in persons who are minors at the time of his making application to he permitted to operate such distillery; but in such case the party so applying must give such bond as the Commissioner in his discretion sees fit to accept.

Your second inquiry is whether, in the event of such continuance of the distillery as aforesaid, the owners of the fee (the minor children) would be liable in any way to the Government for the acts of the leases, not withstanding the bonds of the latter as storesaid."

I reply that the object of the provisions of section I, as above stated, is because of the incapacity of the minor in whom the fee it vested to give consent, and that no consent having been given whereby the fee might in any contingency become affected by the occupation: therefore, the claims of the Government can in no way prejudice the rights of the minor to the fee in the land. Very respectfully, casendar makes this date "the heighth of the season." The presence of New York's famous Seventh Regiment, the inauguration of the grand balls and hops, and the commercement of the Saratoga races, all combine to fill this watering place to its reasonable limit. For a week past the arrivals have averaged five hundred a day, and the spicious parlors and col-onnaded piazzas of the Congress, Union and Clarendou hotelsfurnish a fachionable display, grand even in its vanity of vanities. The weather is deliciously bright and coel, and the belles and braux exhibit themselves in regal tyle out as well as in-doors. Such a gloss of satin and glimmer of pearl" and flash of pages of a newspaper letter so that the stant reader may have the picture complete. Let it be plainly said, then, that fashion is growing with its growth and that every season sees it strengthen in exaggeration and absurdity. Even the Grecian bend. which everybody thought had been carrest ared by pen and pencil out of sight of further ridicule, is revived in all of its redoubled glory. Such panniers and bustles as have greeted the new birth of the bend have caused much lamentation among some of the Washington, Baltimore and Philadelphia girls, who find themselves here minus the latest "elevation" in female dress. The bustles are so much larger and higher than last season that the ladies anpear, while walking, to be much the shape of a kangaroo. One no longer hears advice that the dear things should take perpermint or Congress water, for the bend cannot be talked down, nor written down, here at least. It is ordained, but to marvel is inevitable. All day long, and far into the night, the brilliant promenade goes on. Through the parlors, down the long, wide and brightly-lighted porticoes the procession of handsome women and homely women moves in its uniformity of excessiv dress. The "effect" is said, by a better posted one than your correspondent, to be produced in this wise. The explanation seems authoritative. High-heeled shoes-the heels to a point-incline the wearer forward. She is thus more readily enabled to elevate her hips unnaturally behind. enhancing the aspect of the panter to contract the stomach and to form an S-like curvature of the upper shape by thrusting out the chest, drawing back the shoulders, and bending forward the head, the latter crowned by a hideons chignon. To secure this posture, to which fastened about the waist, from which belt down either side descend two straps furnished with buckles, and these are attached to strong bands made fast around the lower thighs. The tightening of these buckles draws up the hipand holds them in place. Thus, by the aid of the panier, bustle, contracted stomach, expanded chest, out-thrust head, enormous chignon and the apparatus just described, the whole superstructure standing upon A1 gaiters, we have the Grecian Bend.

The bend appears in every style of dressthat for the street, the drawing room, and the ball room. No lady amounts to much among the fashionables who does not appear during the day in four separate costumes, with jew-elry to match. Nor to keep up with the tan must she appear in any old dresses or dupli cate them from one day to another. A handsome blonde, who arrived here on Friday last, has already appeared in twenty-one new dresses, and is still tantalizing the other female guests at the Congress by coming out each time in a handsomer one. It the season lasts long enough the bottom of her tranks may b reached. The morning walking or breaktas suits run from striped cumbries to silks and satins of every conceivable style and color with lace sacks and shawis and jaunty hat and feathers. The beaux for the morning drives and walks to the springs wear black velvet sack coats, with Russia duck pants and vests and white cloth bats. The STAR has no patience enough, nor am I competent, to de cribe the dinner and evening dresses. All through one's dreams, especially if your Con-gress water has not had a good effect, there is an endless fashion plate, like that in Deme rest's, swimming before your vision. The fashionable jewelry is diamonds-in the earall over the hands, and about the neck and wrists. Coral and gold and the other precioustones do not contribute to the outfit. Bu

The Balls at the Congress and Union. The first ball of the season—though there are hops every evening—came off at the Congress an excellent one, too, furnished the music The ball opened at 10 p. m. Gov. Hoffmann, Commodore Vanderbilt, and Saxe, the poet were on the committees to insure success Hereare some of the attractions: M . Drake of New York, daughter of Drake, the plantation oitters man, was one of the belles, and wore black and white striped silk with pink over kirt, in the Maria Autoinette style, with diamonds set in jett. Miss Cross, of New York, grand-daughter of Commodore Vanderbilt, was attired in a silver tinted silk, flounced at " hal mast," with black lace over-dress, en panier, with a broad black sash. Miss Greer, of Pailadelphia, daughter of Associate Justice Green the Misses Allen and Davies, of Providence, R. I.; the Misses Gansevoort, of Albany; Mrs Darling, of New York; Mrs. Mills, of New Vork, and many others, were famous the entire evening for the beauty and richness of their costumes. Of course there was a belle of the ball-room, a Miss Cordova, from Havana, who wore diamonds to the value, it is reported, of one hundred thousand dollars—but fifty thousand looked more like the truth. To-night the Union Hotel opens its ball season with the Seventh Boys. The Union Park is brilliantly illuminated with Chinese lanters and gleb lights and decorated with flowers. Its grounds are filled with all Saratoga-the admission fee only being three dollars and the scene is indeed a fairy one. The band is composed of one hundred pieces, and is playing Offenbach to the very end. Nearly every soldier boy has on his white kids, and a lady on his arm. There are about seven thousand spectators of the scene in and out of the ball-room.

TROUBLE IN SOUTH CAROLINA. TROUBLE IN SOUTH CAROLINA.

CHARLESTON, July 24.—Much excitement prevails here among the two wings of the Republican party. Dr. Mackey, the late Collector, leads the native wing, which includes the mass of the colored voters; while Sensitor Sawyer, Congressman Bowen, and Geo. W. Clark, the newly-appointed Collector in the place of Mackey, head the Northern element. The removal of Mackey has intensified the biliterness between the two factions. On Thursday, Clarke called on Mackey, and presenting his commission, demanded instant possession of the collector's office. Mackey refused to vacate until he had taken inventories refused to vacate untit he had taken inventories of the public properly and a record of the receipts from Clarke, but promised to transfer on the 31st tostant. Clarke insisted on an immediate surrender, which being refused, he entered Mackey's office as collector, whereupon he was forcibly ejected by Mackey's subordinates. Yesterday afternoot, Mackey and other custom-house officers were arrested at the instance of Clarke, on a charge of assault and obstructing an officer of the revenue, and were bound over to answer before the United States Commissioner on Monday. During the hearing of the case, Clarke, with a posse of thirty men, forced his way into the custom-house and took possession, which he still retains. THE RHODE ISLAND QUARREL .- A special dispatch to the New York Evening Post from this city says. A piece of political gessip is affoct to the effect that Senator Anthony has lately requested from the War Department copies of all letters written by Senator Sprague, containing charges against officers in Rhode Island regiments during the recent war, whereby many of them were unjustly suspended, and intends using them against Sprague during the next session of Congress. It is understood here among his friends that Senator Anthony will next winter open a vigorous fight on Sprague in the Senate. The indications are favorable for a lively time between the two Rhode Island Senators where Congress again meets. Congress again meets.

Cuban News.

A report is in circulation that the Cuban Government contemplates emburgoing the properties of Jose Baro, a wealthy Cuban, who is at present absent from the island. Plantations situated in the midst of the insurrectionary district are unburt, and the owners of them are suspected of giving money to the rebels to save them from destruction. Advices from Santiago de Cuba to the 16th instant have been received. The arrival of the monitor Centaur created quite a sensation. The explanations received by Admiral Hoff from the Spanish authorities relative to the execution of Americans are reported as being satisfactory. Spanish authorities relative to the execution of Americans are reported as being satisfactory, and the Spanish Government justified in its action. A banquet was tendered the officers of the United States squadron on duty at Santiago, but declined. Several skirmishes had recently taken place between the troops and insurgents. The insurgents attacked a number of garrisoned plantations. The steamer Mayare, which arrived at Havana yesterday, brought 150 sick troops. General Jordan is in the country between Santiago de Cuba and Bayamo. Jordan's forces have been joined to those of Rustan.

SUCCESSFUL COMPLETION OF THE FRENCH CABLE.

BOSTON, July 24.—The shore end of the French cable was landed last night, and bauled into the telegraph house at Rouse's Humma k. The entire cable is said to be in go d working condition. The wires from Advices received in this city from leaders in the Cuban army state that on the 12th and 14th troeps of General Quesada, stationed between Puerto Principe and Neuvitas, were attacked by General Letona, and in both instances were repulsed—on the first day with a loss of 50 killed and wounded, and on the second with over 100. The Cubans retain their position of seige before Puerto Principe. The troops under General Figuero, of General Jordan's command, occupying a position some forty miles seige before Pierto Principe. The troops under General I Figuero, of General Jordan's command, occupying a position some forty miles from St. Jago de Cuba, were attacked on the 12th by a Spanish force of over 1.290, said to have been commanded by Gen. Valmarda in person. After three bours' fighting the Spaniards were compelled to give up the attack. The next day, having been reinforced, the Spanish General renewed the attack with great vigor. These assults were made on the Cuban position, and in each the Spaniards were repulsed. In the last attack their loss was so great that they were compelled to precipitately retreat. General Jordan participated in the second day's fight. The loss of the Cuban is set down at 62 in killed and wounded. Among the killed were two officers. The Spanish loss is reported to have been over 36. They made good their retreat to St. Jago de Cuba.

NIAGARA FALLS.—The theory that has for some time been discussed with regard to the caving in or wearing away of Niagara, has this season found new feel to add to the argument in its favor. Considerable comment has been going the rounds of the leading papers for a few weeks with relation to the changed appearance of the falls from that of lest year. The Horse Shoe has evidently given way some thirty feet in that portion of the come where the "green water is seen, so that the horse shoe appearance is measurements of the that of a triangular shape. It is thought that what one hundred and fifty tons of rock must have fallen in on the Horse Shoe alone, and old habitass here are taking land marks, to notice the recession that may take place before another year. The American Fall has evidently given way at points to a considerable extent. There is no doubt but that Niagara is crumbling away and falling back, but the present recession is probable the grantest ever witnessed by one generation. The heavy toe fields which pass over in the spring, the atrong currents and censeless wear and tear of time, and the mighty, thundening catract must inevitably tell heavily upon the rocky crest of the grand old shrine; but of course its falling away must be slow, as not to be observable to the eye, except when, from time to time, some of the immense boulders give way.

California Republican Convention has nominated Lotenzo Sawyer and O. C. Pratt for judges of the Supreme Court. A series of resolutions were adopted. The first pledges the support of the party and endorses the acts of Grant's administration; the second declares the negro question has ceased to be an element in American politics, and the ratification of the Fifteenth amendment should be followed by universal amnesty and the enfranchisement of the Southern people; the third regards with satisfaction the increasing immigration to this State from the Atlantic States and Europe, but, while giving the preference to people of our own race, holds inoffensive emigrants from China entitled to full protection of the law, but opposes Chinese suffrage in any form, and any change of the Natistalization laws of the United States; the fourth recognizes the power of the General Government to restrict or prevent Chinese emigration by terminating our commercial relations with China, but believes the closing of our ports at present against the Chinese would be injurious to the national interests and cast reproach upon the mitelligence of the American people, contrary to the spirit of the age; the fifth approves the eight-hour law; the sixth endorses the action of Congress respecting the Alabama treaty, and considers it the day of the General Government to demand tail reparation for the injury inflicted by the British Government and people upon our commerce during the late rebellion; the seventh favors the equalization of taxation on all kinds of property in the State; the eighth opposes grants of State aids to railroads. CALIFORNIA REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.

DISTILLING CITY GARRAGE -It is reported Districting City Garrage —It is reported that a company has established a manufactory in Chicago for the purpose of distilling alcohol and extracting soap grease from ordinary city garbage. The process, which is patented, consists in taking the garbage just as it is hauled off in the city carts, dumping it into taght tanks, and boiling it six hours at a temperature of 212 degrees. Fahrenheit. The whole mass is then dissolved and run into tubs and fermented by the aid of yeast. The soap grease and impurities rise to the top of the tubs, and are skimmed off, and the residuum is distilled in the regular way. According to the estimates of the inventor, each barrel of garbage will yield three pounds of soap grease and four gallons of proof spirits. The soap grease is a spood as that obtained in the usual way, but the alcohol betrays its origin by an odor which requires further processes for its removal.
